

Toronto Semiotic Circle

Third Symposium on Gesture, Conversation and Dialogue

April 28-29, 2006
Victoria College, Northrop Frye Hall, Room 205

Friday April 28 (3:00 – 5:00 pm)

John McClelland

Professor Emeritus of French and Semiotics
University of Toronto, Victoria College

“Models of Dialogic Structuration: Setting Words to Music, Playing Baseball”

Richard L. Lanigan

University Distinguished Scholar and Professor of Communicology
Vice President, International Association for Semiotic Studies
Speech Communication Department
Southern Illinois University

“Foucault Dialogues with Aristotle: Both Have an Identity Crisis”

Saturday April 29 (10:00 – 12:00 am)

Tom Craig

Fellow and Internet Director, International Communicology Institute
Human Communication Consultant
Centre for Teaching, Learning and Educational Technologies
Brock University

“Sensuous Signs and Closed Systems: A Communicology of Fundamental Codes in Contemporary Culture”

Maureen Connolly

Professor of Physical Education and Kinesiology
Brock University

“Semiotic Choreology”

The symposium will be chaired by Professor Emeritus Paul Bouissac, Department of French, University of Toronto (Victoria College)

ADMISSION IS FREE